DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group 1, claim(s) 1-9, 19-21 drawn to a highly active glycoprotein produced by the process of claims 1-8, a method of producing said glycoprotein and a composition comprising said glycoprotein.

Group 2, claim(s) 10, drawn to a process for the identification/determination of a highly active glycoprotein according to claims 1-8.

Group 3, claim(s) 11, drawn to a process of differential sialylation of a glycoprotein according to claim 11.

Group 4, claim(s) 12-18, drawn to a process for the generation of an expression cell line with a defect in the sugar nucleotide biosynthetic pathway of sialic acids.

The inventions listed as Groups 1-4 do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

A. Group 1, recites the special technical feature of a highly active glycoprotein produced by the process of claims 1-8, a method of producing said glycoprotein and a composition comprising said glycoprotein are taught by Jacobs et al. (see X-reference cited in the international search report, Biochemistry 40: 12864-74, 2001). Therefore, Groups 2-4 do not share the special technical feature of Group 1.

B. Group 2, recites the special technical feature of identification/determination of a highly active glycoprotein according to claims 1-8.

Art Unit: 1646

C. Group 3, recites the special technical feature of differential sialylation of a glycoprotein according to claim 11.

D. Group 4, recites the special technical feature of the generation of an expression cell line with a defect in the sugar nucleotide biosynthetic pathway of sialic acids.

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims.

Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
